News from the Food Bank

Dear Friends,

Happy New Year!! I pray it is a good year for all.

The holiday shopping event that was held the second week of December was a success with the help of donated items and a generous donation from the Grand Ledge Meijer. 72 families participated resulting in gifts and Christmas decorations for 256 family members. The clients appreciated and seemed to enjoy the event. Large tables were covered with red table clothes to display the gifts. There was a gift wrapping area so they could leave with wrapped gifts. Christmas music played in the background to add to the fun. Thanks to everyone who donated to this event.

The harsh winter months require we return to the practical. There is a great need for blankets in all sizes. Sheets in full and queen sizes would also be helpful. Please hold your adult clothing donations at this time because space is tight. Coats, boots and winter accessories in all sizes are always needed. Children's clothing is also needed.

Food Suggestions

Boxed milk
Kidney beans
Chili beans
fat-free refried beans

Peace,

Cheryl Mulder
